

Concise Length Bio

For over a decade, Marty Edwards has been a featured soloist on numerous concert series around the globe and has shared the stage with musicians ranging from singers and choirs to jazz, blues, rock, bluegrass, and orchestral ensembles. Additionally, Marty has been the recipient of numerous awards and honors including the most recent Samuel Griffen Seawell and Pasty Moore Seawell Fund along with the Marjory J. Flint Scholarship for graduate studies in music. A passionate teacher since 2002, Mr. Edwards also holds a B.A. in Music from Berea College and a M.M. in Guitar Performance at the University of North Carolina School of the Arts.